

A Special Message for Our Print Subscribers During the COVID-19 Outbreak

Complimentary Digital Subscriptions

Landlaw Legal Publishers is committed to maintaining our operations producing all of our legal reporters throughout the novel coronavirus outbreak. We understand that many law firms, administrators, and other subscribers are now working remotely--much like we are, ourselves. Therefore, we are offering all of our print subscribers the option of a complimentary digital version of the materials. Up to five individuals are entitled to receive digital materials per print subscription, provided each shares the same domain. You'll receive:

- A PDF version (attachment) of the reporter or reporters you have subscribed to
- Clear, detailed instructions for how to use the digital version
- Additional search capability by keyword across issues using Adobe Reader
- No interruption of materials--whether you choose to maintain your print subscription as is or opt for the digital version for you and your team members who are working remotely
- Bonus: receive 50% off the digital version of any Landlaw reporter you don't presently receive. Visit the "Publications" tab at www.landlaw.com for a full list of our offerings. For new subscriptions, email subscriptions@landlaw.com.

Please contact us at info@landlaw.com or leave us a message at (800) 637-6330 x 204 for more information and to opt in. We will need the publication name and the email address of each recipient at your firm who wishes to receive the digital version. Above all, please do all you can to stay healthy and safe during these challenging times.

Kind regards,

Andre M. Vagliano
