

main undeterred. Worse yet, the Teachers' Unions continue with their efforts to try to repeal the law that currently prohibits public employees from engaging in strikes. See MGL c. 150E § 9(a) ("No public employee or employee organization shall engage in a strike, and no public employee or employee organization shall induce, encourage or condone any strike, work stoppage, slowdown or withholding of services by such public employees.") Currently, there is a pending bill (H. 1845/S. 1217) being considered by the state legislature that would allow public employees (excluding public safety personnel) to strike after six (6) months of unsuccessful negotiations with their employers. ■
